

Top (3) Ways to Stop Spam

Never respond to unsolicited email. Spammers will use your reply, even your unsubscribe messages, as evidence that the email address is valid.

Never buy anything advertised in spam. Most of it is fraudulent anyway and successful sales only encourage the practice to continue.

Never post your email address publicly on the Web. Spammers have ways to collect and use these email addresses.