You may take a seminar before you have earned 54 hours, but it will not satisfy the senior seminar graduation requirement. Seminars may not be taken pass/fail. Note: You may also satisfy your seminar requirement through Independent Research in Lieu of Seminar; contact Dean Sowle for details.

INTERSESSION COURSES

The following Interession courses are considered Fall courses for purposes of tuition and computing Fall grade point averages. However, the credits will not count as part of your Fall course load for purposes of credit hour limitations. If registering for an interession course will put you over your maximum credit limit, please contact Dean Sowle so that your maximum credit limit can be adjusted in the registration system. Note to Evening Division students: If taking an interession course brings your total credit hours for the Fall semester to at least 12, you will automatically be billed for student health insurance unless you waive coverage; instructions for waiving coverage appear in the Registration Bulletin.

WHAT EVERY LAWYER SHOULD KNOW ABOUT BUSINESS (1 credit)

This class will provide students with a basic introduction to some of the most important legal and financial subjects that affect businesses, including different types of business entities, securities laws, business ethics, accounting, bankruptcy, tax, and mergers and acquisitions. Different subjects will be taught by different professors who specialize in the area. The goal of the course is to provide students with basic literacy in these topics. We believe this is important, as almost every legal practitioner will encounter these issues and should have some familiarity with them. The course is designed for students who would not otherwise enroll in many business-related courses as well as for students who would like a birds-eye overview of these subjects before studying them in detail. Classes will meet 10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. each day. A multiple-choice exam will be given on Friday, August 23. Faculty includes: Profs. Batlan, Birdthistle, Brody, G. Brown, S. Harris, Hablutzel.
