EVIDENCE AND THE ART OF ADVOCACY / TRIAL ADVOCACY 1

This course consists of taking Evidence and the Art of Advocacy (a special section of the basic Evidence course) and Trial Advocacy 1 during the same semester. You will receive a total of six credits and will receive one grade for the entire six credits. Pass/fail is not available. If you have already taken Evidence, you may not take this course. Students should register for both Evidence and the Art of Advocacy and the Trial Advocacy 1 section listed below. The course is designed for students who wish to be trial lawyers. It will give students a mastery of the rules of evidence while also learning the practical application of those rules in the courtroom. You will apply the rules of evidence as they are discussed each week in class in your Trial Advocacy sections that same week. The Evidence class will be taught by Judge Erickson. The course is limited to 24 students for the Evidence portion; students will be assigned, in groups of eight, to one of the Trial Advocacy sections. There will be an Evidence final, a midterm bench trial, and a final jury trial. If you have a strong preference for one of the Trial Advocacy 1 sections (e.g., due to a conflict with another class), please email Dean Sowle.

207-01	Evidence & the Art of Advocacy	3	MTTh	3:00-3:55 pm

INTENSIVE TRIAL ADVOCACY 1 (3 credits)

Prof. Erickson and faculty

Prerequisite: Evidence. Pass/fail not available. You must take Trial Advocacy 2 in the Spring semester if you take Intensive Trial Advocacy. If you enroll in the course and later decide not to take it, you must drop it by Friday, December 13, or you will be charged full tuition for the course unless another student takes your seat. This class is considered a Spring course for purposes of tuition and computing Fall grade point averages. However, the credits will not count as part of your Spring course load for purposes of maximum credit hour limitations. (If taking Intensive Trial Advocacy will put you over the maximum credit limit for your division, please contact Dean Sowle prior to registering so that your maximum hour limit can be adjusted in the system.) Classes will meet from 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. each day, including the intervening Sunday. Note to Evening Division students: If Intensive Trial Advocacy brings your total credit hours for the Spring semester to at least 12, you will automatically be billed for student health insurance unless you waive coverage; instructions for waiving coverage appear in the Registration Bulletin.
