

SPRING 2021 SCHEDULE OF CLASSES

January 30, 2021 (revised)

DAY DIVISION

FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS

All Day Division students (both full-time and part-time) should register for Civil Procedure, Property, and Legal Writing 2. Please be sure to register for the classes listed for your current section. For your final course, full-time Day Division students should register for one of the following: (1) Legislation; (2) the First-Year Clinic (if you applied for and were selected for it); or (3) one of the designated elective courses listed below. If you register for, but are not admitted into, an elective class, you will be able to register for Legislation or another available elective during the add/drop period. If you do not take Legislation in the Spring, you will be required to take it next Fall. You may also register for an elective other than the designated ones, if it fits into your schedule and you receive permission; contact Dean Sowle if you are interested in registering for such an elective.

SECOND-YEAR STUDENTS (2019 Entrants)

Legislation

Second-year students in the part-time Day Division should register for one of the Legislation sections listed above.

Legal Writing 3 and Legal Writing 4

Day Division students are required to take Legal Writing 3 and Legal Writing 4 during their second year. Legal Writing 3 provides an introduction to researching and writing about non-litigation transactional issues and documents, with additional emphasis on oral communication with colleagues and clients. All sections of Legal Writing 3 are offered as General Practice sections. Legal Writing 4 focuses on advanced research and writing skills in a variety of doctrinal areas and on creating legal instruments common to these areas. All second-year Day Division students were required to take Legal Writing 3 in the Fall semester, except for those who took a Legal Writing 4 Equivalency Class. Students who took an Equivalency Class in the Fall, and deferred Legal Writing 3, must register for Legal Writing 3 this semester. All other second-year Day Division students must register for Legal Writing 4 this semester.

* Students seeking the certificates in these program areas have priority for these sections.

 Hybrid sections will meet on-site for all class sessions, except for students approved for all-remote.

Note: Additional sections of Legal Writing 3 and Legal Writing 4 are listed on the Evening Division schedule.

Legal Writing 4 Equivalency Class

Students who take Criminal Litigation 2 or Judicial Externship in the Spring may satisfy the Legal Writing 4 requirement either by taking a regular Legal Writing 4 class, or by taking Legal Writing 4 Equivalency Class this semester (0 credits). There will be an initial class session held by Zoom (day/time TBA); the rest of the course will be conducted asynchronously online. Please note: The Equivalency Class must be taken in the same semester as the activity that qualifies you to take the Equivalency Class – you may not defer the Equivalency Class to a later semester.

BOTH DIVISIONS

SEMINARS

Most seminars are limited to a maximum of 15 students. Seminars that meet at 4:00 p.m. are considered to be both Day Division and Evening Division seminars. In order to satisfy the senior seminar graduation requirement, you must have completed at least 54 hours of credit and Legal Writing 4 prior to beginning the seminar. You may take a seminar before you have earned 54 hours, but it will not satisfy the senior seminar graduation requirement. Seminars may not be taken pass/fail. Note: You may also satisfy the seminar requirement through Independent Research in Lieu of Seminar; contact Dean Sowle for details.

INTENSIVE TRIAL ADVOCACY 1 (3 credits)

This is an intersession course. For details, see the Intersession Courses page later in this schedule.

CLINICAL EDUCATION COURSES

Permission is required for admission to all clinical programs. All In-House and Externship clinical programs are graded on a pass/low pass/fail basis only, with the exception of Intensive Clinic and Intensive Clinic seminar, which are graded on a letter grade basis. Students are expected to put in a minimum of 224 hours (an average of 16 hours a week for 14 weeks) for 4-credit In-House Clinics and for Externships (in addition to the classroom component), and a minimum of 168 hours (an average of 12 hours a week for 14 weeks) for 3-credit In-House Clinics. Students must be available at the days and times designated below to meet with supervising attorneys and at other times as required. Please note: See page 1 of this schedule for scheduling information for the First-Year Clinic.

Please note: The information in the Format column below refers to the weekly Monday 4:00 clinic meetings. As indicated, some will meet remotely and some on-site. For those that meet on-site, students approved to take all classes online will participate remotely. Students will be expected to meet with their professors at other times during the week unless they have been approved to take all classes remotely.

INTERSESSION COURSES

The following Intersession courses are considered Spring courses for purposes of tuition and computing Spring grade point averages. However, the credits will not count as part of your Spring course load for purposes of credit hour limitations. If registering for an intersession course will put you over your maximum credit limit, please contact Dean Sowle so that your maximum credit limit can be adjusted in the registration system. Please note: First-year students may not take intersession classes.

ADR IN THE WORKPLACE (2 credits)

Prof. Totonchi

Course number: 427-01

Monday, January 11 - Friday, January 15

Format: Online

Pass/fail not available. This intensive class explores the doctrine and process of labor arbitration, employment mediation and employment arbitration. Students will participate in selecting neutral arbitrators, prepping for and conducting labor arbitrations, an employment mediation and an employment arbitration. There will be comments, critiques and suggestions at every step along the way. The condensed schedule should help you focus on mediation and arbitration as you would in real life. Class will meet virtually for approximately 21 hours during the week (the hours will vary depending on the day, and there will be no in-person class session on Wednesday in order for the students to prepare for the rest of the week), with approximately 6 hours of additional instruction through distance learning techniques. If you enroll in the course and later decide not to take it, you must drop it no later than Wednesday, December 30, or you will be charged full tuition for the course unless another student takes your place. Priority for this class will be given to students seeking the Labor and Employment Law Certificate or the Workplace Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution Certificate.

INTENSIVE TRIAL ADVOCACY 1 (3 credits)

Prof. Erickson and faculty

Course number: 541-01

Saturday, January 9 - Saturday, January 16

Format: Online

Prerequisite: Evidence. Pass/fail not available. This is an intensive week-long version of the regular Trial Advocacy 1 class. Classes will meet from 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. each day, including the intervening Sunday. Note: You must take Trial Advocacy 2 in the Spring semester if you take Intensive Trial Advocacy.

PUBLIC INTEREST HOUSING LAW WORKSHOP (2 or 3 credits)

Prof. Atuahene

Course number: 349-01

Monday, January 11 - Saturday, January 16

Format: Online

The class will meet online from 9:00 am to -3:00 pm each day. The class will address the property tax foreclosure crisis in Detroit. One in four Detroit properties have been subject to property tax foreclosure. More troubling, the City assessed the majority of Detroit homes at rates that violated the Michigan Constitution, placing the unprecedented number of property tax foreclosures in disrepute. Working collaboratively with the Coalition for Property Tax Justice and its partner organizations, students will spend the week working to end the property tax foreclosure crisis in Detroit and learning about housing injustice in America. Instead of an exam, students will produce written work product during the course of the week. Please note: Students who took the course in August 2020 may take this version of the class. You will be required to attend four of the six days (which days will be announced by the professor prior to the start of the course) and will receive 2 credits. Students who did not take the course in August 2020 will attend all six days and will receive 3 credits.

Intersession course listings are continued on the next page

STRATEGIC PROBLEM-SOLVING AND THE LAW (2 or 3 credits)

Profs. Baker and Johnson

Course number: 169-01

Monday, January 11 - Friday, January 15

Format: Online

Pass/fail only. This course will immerse students in complex, contemporary legal problems that demand creative, sophisticated analysis and prompt action. Working entirely in groups, students will delve into different subject areas, including employment relationships, environmental law, consumer rights and relational contracts. Each of the four problems that we work on will include intensive, practical research training; in particular, the course will be covering free, practice-related research, government document research, international law and business research. The course aims to simulate decision-making challenges that you often don't face in law school, but frequently face in the real world. Students will produce several kinds of written work product, including client letters, informal inter-agency memos, corporate policy papers, and negotiation outlines. Students will also give oral group presentations to a "client," a "non-profit executive director" and the "executive board of a for-profit company." You will be expected to be available for group work from 8:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. each day except Friday (when we will end by 4:00 p.m.). You will also have work to do in the evenings after 6:00 p.m.

There will be preliminary reading and research, emailed to you in December, but which must be done before class starts. You may take the course for 2 or 3 credits; students taking it for 3 credits will be assigned some supplemental reading and be required to complete a short paper, which will be due Wednesday February 24 (the Wednesday after the first Spring "Study Break.").

If you enroll in the course and later decide not to take it, you must drop it no later than Wednesday, December 30, at 3:00 pm or you will be charged full tuition for the course unless another student takes your seat. Priority for this class will be given to third-year students and students seeking the Praxis Certificate. First-year students may not take this class.
