Incoming African American law students:

Would $5,000 make a difference as you prepare for a career in law?

Apply now for the inaugural Hon. William S. Boyd Scholarship

Sponsored by the Illinois Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers

Designed to foster diversification among family law practitioners in Illinois, this annual scholarship is a one-time award for one African American 1-L student enrolled in an Illinois law school, applicable to tuition and related expenses.

The scholarship honors pioneering Cook County family law jurist Judge Boyd, who will mentor the winning recipient. The Illinois Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers also will arrange an internship for the scholarship recipient.
