TO: Fall 2018 Entering Class - Day Division, Section B
FROM: Nicole Vilches – Assistant Dean, Admissions
DATE: July 2018
RE: Assignments for Your First Class Sessions

Listed below are your assignments for your first class sessions. Both Legal Writing and Criminal Law will begin during Orientation Week, August 20-23, 2018. The remainder of your courses will begin the week of Monday, August 27, 2018.

All required first-year books and materials for entering students may be purchased at the Chicago-Kent bookstore. If you are purchasing your books in store, you should call the bookstore first to make sure that the books you need are available (312-906-5605). You may also order your books on-line at:

Note: Changes or additions to this list of assignments will be posted on the admitted students website at http://www.kentlaw.iit.edu/admitted-students. Be sure to check for updates before Monday, August 20, 2018.

Class: Criminal Law*
Professor: Kimberly Bailey
Required Text: Dressler & Garvey, Criminal Law Cases and Materials (7th Edition)
Assignment: Tuesday, August 21st: pp. 1-19 (1-9 as background), MPC 1.12(1)
          Monday, August 27th: pp. 31-64, MPC 1.02(1)-(2), 1.04, 6.01, 6.06, 6.08
          Wednesday, August 29th: pp. 97-107, 121-132

Reminder: Your first Criminal Law class meets on Tuesday, August 21, during Orientation week.

*Students who took Criminal Law during summer 2018 should disregard this course reading assignment.

Class: Contracts

< OVER >
Professor: Richard Warner

Required Text: Please see Reading Assignment email for link to class website and to download the casebook in Word. A paper copy is available in the Bookstore.

Assignment: Monday
Definitions of Offer and Acceptance
Reading
Lefkowitz v. Minne. Surplus Store

Tuesday
Reading
Dougherty v. Salt
In Re Zappos

Thursday
Reading
Schnell v. Nell

Class: Torts

Professor: Kent Streseman

Assignment: Welcome to Torts. For our first class, please read pages 1-23.

When you purchase the casebook, keep this in mind: I also will require you to buy access to a software product called LawClassFeedback. You don't need to access LCF now; I'll explain more about it soon. There are two ways to obtain LCF: (1) as a bundle with a new copy of the casebook; this version costs $5, or (2) as a standalone product; this costs $29. To get the $5 price for LCF, purchase the casebook/software bundle through the Chicago-Kent bookstore. The ISBN for the bundle is 9781543803228. If you buy or rent the book through other channels, you will have to buy access to LCF separately for $29.

Please check your Chicago-Kent email regularly as we approach the start of the semester.

I look forward to working with you.

Class: Legal Writing I
Professor: Legal Writing section assignments will be distributed on the first day of Orientation.

Required Text: Shapo and Shapo, Law School Without Fear.

Assignment: Your first Legal Writing I class will meet on Monday, August 20. For the first class, please read Chapter 13 of Law School Without Fear and please read the Nelson v. Lewis judicial decision included in the Reading Assignment email. In addition, be sure you have completed Chapters 1-12 in Law School Without Fear, the reading assignment sent to you earlier this summer.

During your first meeting, additional assignments will be made by your professor.